

FRANCO BRITISH LAWYERS SOCIETY

FRANCO-BRITISH LEGAL CAREERS FORUM

Wednesday 9 March 2005, 6.00 – 8.00 pm

PORTLAND HALL, UNIVERSITY OF WESTMINSTER

School of Law, 4-12 Little Titchfield Street, London W1 (off Great Portland Street)

All law students, trainees and recently qualified lawyers are invited to attend the Forum, which is organised in conjunction with the University of Westminster School of Law.

Members of the Panel will speak and answer questions on different aspects of legal careers at the interface between British and French law, both in the UK and France. They will describe their experience of practice in the two jurisdictions, in private practice and as in-house lawyers. All talks will be in English, but questions expressed in French and English are equally welcome. Questions on recognition of qualifications and cross-border practice regulation can also be dealt with.

Chair:	Peter Burbidge	Lecturer in Law, University of Westminster
Panel	Michael Butcher	Barrister, President Franco-British Lawyers Association, Vice-President Legal Affairs, Veolia Environnement SA
	Philip Jenkinson	Avocat au Barreau de Lille, Associé Gérant Triplet et Associés
	Sabine Lochmann	Présidente, Association Française des Juristes d'Entreprise, Legal Director Johnson & Johnson
	Richard Macklin	Solicitor, Partner Denton Wilde Sapte.

Registration from 5.30pm for a prompt start at 6pm

NO CHARGE: those attending are encouraged to become members of the Franco-British Lawyers Society (£10 annual subscription for students and trainees)
