

Association des Juristes
Franco-Britanniques

Franco-British Lawyers
Society Limited

In conjunction with the Franco-British Society

By kind permission of the l'Institut Français

TUESDAY 10 MARCH 2009

At the French Institute, 17 Queensberry Place, London SW7 2DT
5.30 p.m. for 5.45 p.m. until 8.00 p.m.

“MARIAGE A LA FRANÇAISE / ENGLISH WEDDED BLISS”
A Cultural / Legal Comparison

Speakers:

Professeur Philippe Malaurie – Emeritus Professor of Law at Paris II

Richard Fairbairn – Partner, Lester Aldridge Solicitors

Elizabeth Muirhead – Solicitor, Mediator and Collaborative Lawyer

Lisa Hilton – Author, including the “Real Queen of France”

Programme

Professeur Malaurie, speaking in French, will open the evening with an address on marriage in France from the Revolution until today, the other three speakers will be speaking in English and will cover such issues as succession, inheritance, divorce, pre-nuptial agreements and changes to the Civil Code. Lisa Hilton will range widely on the issue of queens and consorts including a reference to her latest book “Queen’s Consort: England’s Medieval Queens”.

The conference will be followed by a reception in the Salon at the l’Institut Français and thereafter dinner in the Bistro.

Tickets for the Reception in the Salon are £10, and dinner for those who have pre-booked will be available in the refurbished Bistro for £25 per person including wine and coffee. Attendance at the event itself is free, but non-member attendees are encouraged to join the Society of their choice!

Please register for the event with Kate Brayn of the Franco-British Society,
2 Dovedale Studios, 465 Battersea Park Road, London SW11 4LR
francobritish@googlemail.com

The event is accredited for 1.5 hours CPD points with the SRA and ILEX