“PRE-NUPTIAL AGREEMENTS”
A comparison of their application and effect
England, Wales, France & Scotland

Pre-nuptial Agreements strongly divide opinions of lawyers, Judges and members of the public alike. They are of growing importance. They can be enforced in countries other than where the agreement was made. The treatment of them by the family courts still varies between different jurisdictions.

The speakers from Paris, London and Edinburgh will cover their enforceability, what couples can include, and summarise important recent developments including an update on a current test case before the English courts involving a French husband.

William HEALING – Partner, Woodford Stauffer Solicitors
Maître Daniela LANDAU SULTAN, Cayol Cahen, Paris
Alasdair LOUDON – Partner, Turcan Connell, Edinburgh
